Debbie Land Retires From Springs Valley!

Springs Valley Bank & Trust Company announces the retirement of Debbie Land, Personal Banker, effective Wednesday, April 28, 2021.

Debbie began employment with Springs Valley in 1987 as a part-time Teller. Over the course of her time with Springs Valley, Debbie has held various positions including Bookkeeping Manager and Banking Center Manager.

She resides in French Lick with husband, Harold. She has two sons, Cory (JoElla) and Nick (Krista), grandchildren, Tanner, Alex, Jackson, Kennedy, Dillion (Kayla), and Sydney and great granddaughter, Izzy.

Debbie is a member of the Restoration Christian Church. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, watching sports, and vacationing on the beach.

"I began banking as a customer with Springs Valley in the early 70's and while in high school," said Debbie. "Springs Valley cares about their employees, customers, and communities, which has made me proud to be a part of the Springs Valley team for over 33 years."

"Debbie has been a cornerstone at Springs Valley for our customers and staff over the past 34 years," said Angie Jones, VP & Business Banker. "Her presence and vast knowledge of the Deposit Operations will be missed on our frontline. I wish Debbie all the best as she begins this next chapter with her retirement."

Springs Valley donates $25,000 to Southwestern Indiana Child Advocacy Center Coalition

Springs Valley Bank & Trust Company donates $25,000.00 to Southwestern Indiana Child Advocacy Center Coalition's Capital Campaign to assist with the establishment of a regional resiliency center through the remodel of the west side portion of the previous Fifth Street Elementary School in Jasper, Indiana.

The Southwestern Indiana Child Advocacy Center Coalition (SWIACC) has obtained the 1990 Addition of the Fifth Street Elementary School building to expand the child advocacy center and partner with other community non-profits to ensure better outcomes for youth. The non-profit child advocacy center covers Crawford, Daviess, Dubois, Martin, Orange, Perry, and Spencer Counties in Southern Indiana and will continue to use their satellite locations however this new space will provide the organization with space to expand services. SWIACC's Center on Fifth Street will have staff offices, on-site services, and a training facility.

"Enhancing the quality of life in our communities is at the core of Springs Valley's giving wisely philosophy," said Dianna Land, SEVP & HR & Marketing Manager. "We recognize our financial contribution to SWIACC's Capital Campaign is a direct way to make an investment in the lives of the children in our communities that need hope, help and healing.

SWIACC's mission is to provide a safe reporting location for victims of crime and their families, with community based multi-disciplinary teams providing support, promoting justice, and helping prevent violence."
